Jesus in our Homes: Thriving at Home • Deuteronomy 6:4-9 (NIV)

<sup>4</sup>Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one. <sup>5</sup>Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength. <sup>6</sup>These commandments that I give you today are to be on your hearts. <sup>7</sup>Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up. <sup>8</sup>Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads. <sup>9</sup>Write them on the doorframes of your houses and on your gates. (Deuteronomy 6:4-9)

Observation #1

The people of Israel needed a reminder of who God is and who they were.

Application #1

We need to keep these truths at the forefront of our lives.

Observation #2

Moses calls for a response of all-encompassing love.

Application #2

Our love for God is to be lived out practically and personally.

“There is not a square inch in the whole dominion of our human existence over which Christ – who is sovereign over all – does not cry, ‘Mine!’” (Abraham Kuyper, Dutch Theologian and Statesman)

Observation #3

The hearing and obeying of God’s Word was to shape their entire life.

Application #3

The Word of the Gospel is to do the same for us.

<sup>16</sup>Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. <sup>17</sup>And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him. (Colossians 3:16-17)

Take-Home Truth

Our love for God is to permeate, fill, and shape every part of our lives, including wherever we call “home” and whoever we call “family”.
