...what has happened to me has really served to advance the gospel (Philippians 1:12)

God works wherever you ARE, not just wherever you WANT.

so that it has become known throughout the whole imperial guard and to all the rest that my imprisonment is for Christ. (Philippians 1:13)

Question: How do tough circumstances open/close doors for the Gospel in your life?

Confident and bold faith is contagious.

And most of the brothers, having become confident in the Lord by my imprisonment, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. (Philippians 1:14)

¹⁵Some indeed preach Christ from envy and rivalry, but others from good will. ¹⁶The latter do it out of love, knowing that I am put here for the defense of the gospel. ¹⁷The former proclaim Christ out of selfish ambition, not sincerely but thinking to afflict me in my imprisonment. (Philippians 1:15-17)

Cultivating joy in a broken world:

- Fight for Jesus to be your greatest joy.

What then? Only that in every way...Christ is proclaimed, and in that I rejoice. (Philippians 1:18)

- Loosen your grip on earthly goods and circumstances.

Whatever gain I had, I counted as loss for the sake of Christ... I count everything a loss...I count them as rubbish, in order that I might gain Christ. (Philippians 3:7-8)
